A report on the 1034th meeting will be delayed until the next bulletin. Please note that if you want to attend the banquet, payments must be received by June 19. While you are writing a check, you may want to add another PCNS medal to your collection.

PCNS 1000th meeting medals are still available. The set includes both a proof silver and an antiqued bronze specimen and is only $30 plus postage and insurance.

An auction of interest

Dave Lange has consigned some PCNS literature and memorabilia to Fred Lake's book sale #64, which is taking place July 9. They may receive the catalog via email by contacting Fred at fredlake@aol.com or get a hardcopy by writing to Lake Book 6822 22nd Avenue N., St. Petersburg, Florida 33710-3918. The items consigned include a complete set of the PCNS Bulletin 1948-2000. (editor's note: If any member needs a back issue of 2001 or 2002, let me know and I will print one.)
